Pimp is a memoir by Iceberg Slim, a black man who became a pimp in the United States during the 1930's. He shares his background of what led up to his pimp life along with stories that took place during his career. While the book contains many useful tips on how to handle women, I wouldn't call it a pimp manual.

Pimpin' Ken essentially spins Robert Greene's "48 Laws of Power" and explains them, as only he could, from a wildly successful pimp's perspective. Given that fact, this book is written in a pimp's language and will therefore be highly offensive to those without the sensibility to look passed the effect that this language is meant to have.
